Explanations

Since our employees' health is our priority, Logo has taken precautions against the global Covid-19 pandemic as of first days of March. A summary of precautions taken is listed below:

- In the first week of March, company travel restrictions were put in place. Mandatory travel became subject to executive management approval. Detailed cleaning and disinfection precautions were taken in our offices, and all employees were informed about the Covid-19 pandemic and the Ministry of Health's guidance.
- Following the announcement of the first case in Turkey, we formed an Employee Health, Occupational Health and Business Continuity Desk. The Desk began "pandemic prevention" works in parallel with our Occupational Health and Safety Council.
- We have been sharing all new developments with employees on a continuous basis. A "Covid-19 Info" section with all the announcements and documents was introduced at our company's intranet enabling employees access to all related resources.
- In consideration of all of our employees' health, our company switched to full-time remote work model as of 17 March 2020.

- Remote work model duration will be evaluated every two-weeks by our Employee Health, Occupational Health and Business Continuity Desk in conjunction with the announcements of the Ministry of Health.
- For business continuity, all internal and external communications take place on digital platforms.
- As a technology company, we did not face any problems since our infrastructure and business processes were ready and suitable for a remote work model.
- Occupational Health and Safety rules for remote work model have been communicated to all employees.
- As of date our operations continue without any disruptions.
